

Internet Privacy and Cookies Policy

Freedom Assessors is committed to safeguarding and preserving the privacy of our visitors. This Policy explains what happens to any personal data that you provide to us, or that we collect from you whilst you visit our website and how we use cookies on the website.

Information that we collect

In running and maintaining our website we may collect and process the following data about you:

- Information about your use of our site including details of your visits such as pages viewed and the resources that you access. Such information includes traffic data, location data and other communication data.
- Information provided voluntarily by you. For example, when you register for information, your name and email address.
- Information that you provide when you communicate with us by any means.

Use of Cookies

Cookies provide information regarding the computer used by a visitor. We may use cookies where appropriate to gather information about your computer in order to assist us in improving our website. We may gather information about your general internet use by using the cookie. Where used, these cookies are downloaded to your computer and stored on the computer's hard drive. Such information will not identify you personally; it is statistical data which does not identify any personal details whatsoever.

You can adjust the settings on your computer to decline any cookies if you wish. This can be done within the "settings" section of your computer.

For more information please read the advice at AboutCookies.org.

Use of Your Information

Where there is a legitimate interest we use the information that we collect from you to provide our services to you. We may use the information for one or more of the following purposes:

- To provide information to you that you request from us relating to our products or services and inform you of any important changes to these products and services.
- To inform you of any safety or recall notices.
- We never trade your details to third parties.

In operating our website it may become necessary to transfer data that we collect from you. By providing your personal data to us, you agree to this transfer. Unfortunately the sending of information via the internet has proven never to be without a small risk and on occasion such information can be intercepted. Although we take precautions we cannot guarantee the security of data that you choose to send us electronically, sending such information is at your own risk.

Disclosing Your Information

We will not disclose your personal information to any other party other than in accordance with this Privacy Policy and in the circumstances detailed below:

- In the event that we sell any or all of our business to the buyer.
- Where we are legally required by law to disclose your personal information.
- To further fraud protection and reduce the risk of fraud.

Third Party Links

On occasion we include links to third parties on this website. Where we provide a link it does not mean that we endorse or approve that site's policy towards visitor privacy. You should review their privacy policy before sending them any personal data.

Access to Information

In accordance with the GDPR you have the right to access and control over any information that we hold relating to you. Please refer to the Information Commissioners' Office web site for more information on GDPR. <http://gdprandyou.ie/>

Contacting Us

Please do not hesitate to contact us regarding any matter relating to this Privacy and Cookies Policy via email at info@freedomassessors.co.uk
